Washington law allows for the illegal language to be struck by bringing an action in superior court or by the free recording of a restrictive covenant modification document. Many county auditor websites provide a short form with instructions on this process.					59 60 61 62 63 64

The subject property is being sold by Chopot Lands, LLC, a Washington state limited liability company. The property was acquired as timberland by Frances Loan and Donald Loan, the owners and operators of the John Chopot Lumber Company, a lumber milling company that ceased operations in the 1990s. Frances and Donald Loan subsequently transferred the bulk of their timberland holdings into Chopot Lands LLC after the lumber mill shut down. Eventually, they sold one percent of the Chopot Lands LLC to their long time accountant, Dale Hice. Don and Frances retained 99% of the company, with each owning 49.5%.

Don Loan passed away on February 24, 2016 . Frances Loan passed away on September 18, 2020. Dale Hice has been appointed as personal representative of their respective estates, and is the trustee of the Don Loan Testamentary Trust..

The three members of Chopot Lands are Dale Hice personally as to a 1% interest, the Estate of Frances Loan, as to a 49.5% interest, and the Don Loan trust, as to a 49.5% interest. By company action Dale Hice in all his capacities has appointed David McGrane, the attorney for the personal representatives, to be fully authorized to sign “all listing agreements, offers, counter offers, purchase and sale agreements, and all other sale documents necessary for and in furtherance of the sale of real estate owned by Chopot Lands, LLC”.

All of the land listed for sale by Chopot Lands LLC is unimproved timberland, without any structures or known improvements. Neither Dale Hice nor David McGrane has any personal knowledge as to the real property being sold, and both are acting on behalf of the estates of Frances and Don Loan, who can provide no information as to the property.

The property is being listed and sold “AS IS”, without representations or warranties of any kind. Buyer is expected to perform due diligence investigations as to any aspects of the property about which the buyer may have concerns.
